

Racism and Islamophobia Information Session

This information session will be presented by the Islamic Society of Geelong, the Geelong Interfaith Network, Islamic Council of Victoria, the Centre for Muslim Wellbeing, Victoria Police and the Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission.

In the session, you will have opportunities to engage with the presenters and learn about a your rights, the different ways to report and respond to racism and Islamophobia, and the different support options available.

Some of the questions explored in the session include:

- What can I do if I have experienced racism or Islamophobia?
- What is vilification and discrimination?
- Why can reporting be important?
- What are my human and legal rights?

Date:

Saturday 4 September 2021

Time:

11am -1pm
(includes a break for lunch)

Location:

Geelong Mosque (45-47 Bostock Ave,
Manifold Heights VIC 3218)

Geelong Mosque will provide light refreshments and lunch.

Register on Eventbrite

Islamic Society of Geelong
a representative organisation of Muslims of Geelong, Australia

Victorian Equal Opportunity
& Human Rights Commission